

A black and white photograph of an archaeological site. In the upper left, a scale bar with alternating black and white segments is visible. Below it, a small rectangular label contains the following text: "CPG - 80", "SECTION - 20", "E - 5/10", and "EN H2 L3". The ground is covered with numerous rocks and stones of various sizes and shapes, some appearing light-colored and others darker. The background shows a dark, possibly excavated area.
